OH! I SEE HE'S

Back Again.

Dr. Pratt will return from his vacation trip this morning and will be ready for work in the afternoon.

Give your eyes a vacation; they can't stand that strain always. Have it relieved with proper glasses. You'll be surprised at the comfort and pleasure it will afford you—better probably than a vacation.

M. E. BLYSTONE, Section Director

DEPORTED CHINAMEN.—Deputy United States Marshal Charles Utting left last night for San Francisco with five Chinamen who had been ordered deported.

NOLIN RESIDENCE SOLD.—T. M. Nolin, who has been in Prescott most of the time for the last year, has sold his residence property in Churchill addition to Mrs. Nannie T. Mansfield.

SPECIAL REQUEST.—Members of the Baptist church and congregation are especially requested to be present at the Sunday-school session at 9:45 a. m.

JURY HUNG ON WATERMELON GEORGE.—In the case of Watermelon George charged with an assault on J. R. Hammond, a jury in Justice Burnett's court yesterday, after having been out all afternoon, failed to agree.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST.—Corner of Center and Jefferson streets; services 11 a. m. subject, "Mind." Golden text: "Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brothers, be pitiful, be courteous." 11 Peter 3:8.

HOT TOMALES.—The temperature in the hot tomale plant near the corner of First and Buchanan streets got above the limit about midday yesterday and a fire alarm was sent in from box 45. The department responded, but the danger point was past by the time it arrived.

A MINING REGION.—Charles T. Taylor and family, who have spent the last six weeks in the neighborhood of Walnut Grove, returned to the city yesterday morning. While he was there Mr. Taylor became interested in some mining properties which he believes will develop into mines of importance.

LOTS OF BUGS HERE.—On board a crowded Phoenix street-car the other night one gentleman who has not been here long remarked: "There seems to be an awful lot of bugs in Phoenix."

"Yes," said the man standing next to him whose illness has not destroyed his sense of humor, "I brought a lot of them here myself."

SEASIDE EXCURSIONISTS.—The following left for the coast via the M. & P. last night: H. Friedman, A. E. Cobb and wife, F. W. Thode, Jessie R. Sibley, William Rhorlog, I. V. Stewart, J. E. Tharnish, Lena Mills, Mabel Church, Dr. A. J. Chandler, Leo M. Rosenberg, J. P. Ivy and wife, M. T. Smith.

MAX FRIEDMAN DEAD.—It is learned that Max Friedman, a traveling salesman for the firm of Friedman Bros., shoe dealers, of St. Louis, died of Bright's disease in Chicago a few weeks ago. He has been representing that firm in the southwest for several years and was well known all over Arizona.

WRECK NEAR NOGALES.—Owing to the heavy rains between Fairbank and Nogales on the S. P. line, the road bed near Stanford was in bad condition and when a freight train arrived Thursday morning within five miles of the station the train was derailed and most of the cars lay on their side near the track. A wrecking crew was sent out and are endeavoring to clean the wreckage.

JUDGMENT FOR PLAINTIFF.—Justice Robertson yesterday afternoon rendered a judgment for the plaintiff in the case of W. W. Edwards versus Harry Proops and his sister, Mrs. Rose Willis. The suit was for the commission of 5 per cent on the sale of their residence property in the south part of town to the Clarke Pratt Vehicle company, he selling price being $2,250. The defendants gave notice of appeal to the district court.

NEW CORPORATIONS.—Articles of incorporation of the Mountain Queen Mining company were filed in the office of the county recorder yesterday. The capital stock is $1,000,000 and the incorporators are S. T. Allen, E. A. Girvin and J. F. Littlefield. Articles were also filed of the American Mineral Exploration company with a capital stock of $1,000,000, incorporators, S. T. Allen, E. A. Girvin, F. J. Solinsky and others.

H. MICHELSON DEAD.—H. Michelson, who for several months past has conducted a clothes cleaning business on Adams street, died very suddenly yesterday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock. He was engaged in pressing a pair of pants when he was taken suddenly with a hemorrhage of the lungs. Mrs. Kennedy, who conducts the Leland lodging-house, came to his assistance and relieved him as much as possible, but he sank rapidly and died in a few minutes. The body was taken to Easterling's undertaking parlors and the relatives in New York notified by wire. He was about forty-five years old and came here from New York a few months ago for his health.

MRS. RUMNEY HOME.—Mrs. W. Y. Rumney has returned home after several weeks spent very pleasantly in the east and north. She went to Boston first, where she attended the convention of Christian Scientists, then coming west again she stopped in New York, Chicago and various Minnesota cities, spending some time visiting relatives in Winnipeg, Manitoba. She says that while she had a delightful time and saw many pretty places, she saw no place she would rather live than in Phoenix.

A PERIODICAL VISITOR.—Charles J. Lex, who now lives in Los Angeles and who has been traveling all over the southwest for the last thirteen years for Stromberg, Kraus & Co., trunk manufacturers of St. Louis, is paying Phoenix one of his periodic visits. He is infatuated with the Phoenix climate (in the winter time) and with the Phoenix trunk trade in the summer-time. He rather likes to come here, though, even in the summer, for he feels so much more satisfaction when he gets away again. He travels as far south as the City of Mexico, which village he says is badly overrated as a health resort. He generally stays there two weeks and always figures on being sick fifteen days during that time.

A TOMSTONE TRAGEDY.—Andrew Garrett, a young man aged 18, and a well known resident of Tombstone was accidentally shot and instantly killed Thursday afternoon by William Blackburn, a companion. The fatality occurred about three miles from Tombstone while hunting rabbits. The shot from both barrels of a shotgun in the hands of Blackburn entered the back of Garrett's head. Without a groan the young man sank to the ground and expired before his horrified companion could realize what had been done. The dead boy and Blackburn were the best of friends and Blackburn's story of the affair is accepted by all. No blame is attached to the latter. The case is simply looked upon by everyone as one of those inevitable accidents which come up from time to time.

THE BIRD BANQUET.—The banquet following the three two-men team shot of the day before took place at the Hoffman last night. According to the agreement it was paid for by the low team, consisting of Messrs. W. E. Cunningham and W. A. Milton. It was altogether a very pleasant affair. It was something of a surprise that this particular team had to pay for it, for both members are experts and bets had been made that Mr. Cunningham would hold the high gun. He was, though, a victim of ill luck so constantly attendant upon experts in field shoots. The young ladies of the courtesies yesterday expressed their sympathy with him by securing his hat and twisting a great mourning band about it, and they further decorated the door leading to the office of the county treasurer with wreaths of woe.

GEORGE W. CHEYNEY DEAD.—News was received here yesterday that George W. Cheyney of Tucson died in San Francisco on Friday of droopy. He had been ill the greater part of the time for the last year and went to San Francisco recently to place himself under the treatment of Dr. Goodfellow, formerly of Tucson. Soon after Mrs. Cheyney was summoned to his bedside. Mr. Cheyney has lived in Arizona for many years, being counted among the pioneers. He was a brother-in-law of W. F. Staunton of Congress and Tombstone. Mr. Cheyney was engaged in mining during the greater part of his life in Arizona, though he took great interest in the political and educational affairs of the territory. He was at one time postmaster of Tucson and at another served the territory as school superintendent at a time when the office was elective. He was the republican candidate for delegate to congress in 1890, and at the time of his death was probate judge of Pima county, having been elected last fall. There were few men better known all over Arizona and none more favorably.

Lost.—Sunday, August 23, gold nugget. Return 610 North 2d Ave and receive large reward.
